KCAA Preschools Na Lei Gets a Makeover Thanks to Neiman Marcus Employees

(Honolulu, Hawaii, May 5, 2009) –More than 20 Neiman Marcus employees joined hands to brighten the classrooms at KCAA Na Lei Preschool in Kalihi. Employees even brought their children to help with the job!

KCAA’s President and CEO, Christina Cox, commented, “We were delightfully surprised and honored to hear that Neiman Marcus chose to “adopt” KCAA Na Lei, as their community friend earlier this year. Employees have hosted a “Breakfast with Santa” event, delivered hand made Valentine’s Day cards and cookies to the children and now volunteered to re-paint some well-worn school dividers. A new coat of paint makes the school so much brighter! We are all benefitting from this new-found friendship.”

Established in 1895 as Free Kindergarten and Children’s Aid Association, today KCAA Preschools of Hawaii serves almost 1,000 children annually at its seven nationally accredited schools on Oahu. KCAA was recently recognized as Aloha United Way Non-Profit of the Year. KCAA-Na Lei Preschool was opened in 1896 and was originally located in Palama. It now resides on Rose Street in Kalihi serving 80 children ages 2-5 years.
